A Central Registry check on:

Full Name: [REDACTED]

Date of Birth: 07/04/1984 [REDACTED]

Social Security Number: [REDACTED]

Person ID: 72732549

was completed on 02/01/2024 and is valid as of this date only. As required by the Texas Family Code (TFC), §261.002, the Department of Family and Protective Services maintains a central registry of reported cases of child abuse and neglect. The Child Protective Services Central Registry consists only of information gathered during investigations of child abuse and neglect in cases which were given a disposition of "reason to believe", and the person had a role of designated perpetrator or sustained perpetrator. The search is conducted on request and the results are provided to the requester.

The Central Registry check shows that you are:

- not listed in the Central Registry.
- involved in an open child abuse or neglect investigation being conducted by Department of Family and Protective Services. You may request a new Central Registry check at the conclusion of the investigation to determine if you have been listed as a sustained perpetrator or designated perpetrator. The open case is described below
